THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT .- The concerlast night at Thon's Hall, corner of Seventeenth and Main streets, was a decided success. Mr. Henry Deuring, the well-known baritone, was in splendid voice, and won deserved applause.

The quintette-Messrs. F. and C. Ruscher Cook, Gentry, and Goode-rendered severa selections in splendid style, and Mr. Peter Stumpf, as tenor, sustained his well-known reputation. Prof. Dreher as pianist, was excellent. The entertainment closed with cotillon soirée, and the evening was an enjoyable one in every way.

QUEEN-OF-MAY FESTIVAL .- Sänger Halle ast night presented a beautiful scene of youthful loveliness, the occasion being the lice force from four to two. Adopted by coronation of a Queen of May (Miss Mary Becher). Miss Alice Hamilton personated the Queen of Fairles. There were numerous little Cupids and fairies all dressed in excellent taste. After the coronation there was a soirée dansante, which was kept up until early morning.

Mary Jane Mack, a female tramp from Maryland, was arrested for being drunk and disorderly on the street. She was ordered to leave the city.

THE OPERA-FAVORITA .- As pleasing as was her debut in Richmond, it is but just to say that Marie Roze completely captivated her audience last evening in the sparkling and brilliant opera of Donizetti La Favorita. Her personation of Leonora was a triumph in the lyric art, and her acting, which was a study in itself, when coupled with the most bewitching facial expression and lovely, rich voice, held her audience spell-bound throughout. Her greatest charm is that of being perfectly natural, and her purity of style can, perhaps, best be described by the words of Horace used in his ode to Lydia, "simplex munditiis"-"simple in her loveliness."

JEWELS OF THE CROWN OF SCOTLAND .- At Edinburg, Scotland, some years lince, the Jewels of the Crown were locked in a box, that box in another, and so on, until they were supposed to be burglar proof. They were then locked up in the vault of the castle, there to remain for one hundred years, the keys being placed in a mortar and fired nto the sea. Scarce fifty years passed by, and the modern lock-picker opens the vault and boxes without trouble. So the science of medicine, when studied with the aid of chemistry and the microscope, becomes plain and simple, and diseases that were regarded incurable a generation ago now reaforded them until the June term, when the dily yield to remedies employed by the modern and progressive physician.
